The Application

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the SCOE School of Education TEACHING website. The browser's address bar shows 'scoeteaching.net'. The website header includes the SCOE logo and 'Sacramento County Office of Education'. A navigation menu lists: Home, Preservice, Intern Program, Single Subject, Multiple Subject, Education Specialist, District Partners, and About Us.

The main content area features a large image of a diverse group of students and a teacher. To the right of the image is a red circular callout that reads: "Want to teach? Seeking top-quality candidates for our Teacher Preservice Program. Apply now!".

Below the image, the text reads: "Earn your credential while serving as a paid, full-time classroom teacher". It describes an intensive two-year Intern Program for second career professionals and recent graduates, offering practical coursework for Single Subject Math or Science, Mild/Moderate Education Specialist, and Multiple Subject candidates.

The text continues: "The SCOE Intern Program differs from traditional credential programs in the following ways:"

- Candidates complete a mandatory 160 hour Preservice
- Interns are hired as full time, paid classroom teachers
- Interns are not supervised by a master teacher
- Interns are not student teachers
- Credential coursework is concurrent with paid teaching assignment

The text concludes: "The Intern Program supports candidates in a variety of ways during the mandatory Preservice, as a full time teacher, and throughout the two-year Intern Program. Intern

To the right of the main text is a "GET STARTED!" section with three steps:

STEP 1

- Apply
- Interview with program staff
- Enroll in Preservice

STEP 2

- Complete 160 hours of Preservice
- Complete prerequisites (CBEST, CSET, U.S. Constitution)

STEP 3

- Obtain teaching position
- Work as a full-time paid teacher

On the far right, a white arrow points left towards the main content, with a text box that says "Application is now open!". Below this, a yellow box contains the text: "Applications due by November 11th, 5:00 P.M".

Step 4: Intern Program

What is a Teacher Intern?

- What: Interns are hired by districts or charter schools to teach their own students in a face-to-face setting. Interns set up their classrooms, plan lessons, assess students, attending professional development just as any teacher does. They also attend credential courses on Saturdays.
- Where Interns teach:
  - Public or Charter
  - In-Person
  - Must teach in the Capital Region
  - No Private schools

TEACHER INTERN PROGRAM

- Two Year Program
- Saturdays, August-May
- 3-5 Classes per semester
- + Fieldwork Course/Coach Support

SCOE School of Education TEACHER INTERN PROGRAM and Elk Grove Unified School District, in partnership with Genentech are pleased to announce the REACH FOR THE UPSIDE GRANT.

RECRUITING AND RETAINING TEACHERS of COLOR

Teachers today largely do not reflect the backgrounds and/or experiences of the students they teach. In recent years National, State and District initiatives have been implemented to increase the number of teachers that reflect the diversity of our communities. This opportunity will increase the number of diverse teacher candidates in our local schools. We are looking for candidates that hold a bachelor's degree, meet qualifications and experiences to become a Genentech Fellow.

Teaching Credentials

- > Multiple Subject
- > Single Subject Math/Science
- > Education Specialist

Selected applicants will receive

- > generous scholarship to assist with the tuition for the Preservice and Teacher Intern Program in the amount of $6,500
  - > teaching position in Elk Grove Unified School District
- > additional year of mentor support after completion of the program
- > potential to join the EGUSD Classified team during preservice
